COMMUNION SERVICE ON LGBTQ2IA+ PRIDE SUNDAY, JUNE 28, 2020

Prelude: Michael Karpowicz, Pianist, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

music: Arabesque #1 by Claude Debussy

Announcements/Greetings: . . . John Hamer, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

We are pleased to welcome you to a special communion service, upholding the enduring principle of the worth of all persons, and commemorating the Global Pride celebration that seeks to promote human rights for all, recognizing the critical need to fight ongoing discrimination worldwide against members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer, 2-spirit, intersex, asexual, and related communities (lgbtq2ia+).

This service is being held in conjunction with Harmony. Formerly known as GALA and WCN, Harmony is the independent advocacy and educational organization working with members and friends of Community of Christ. We thank members and officers of Harmony for being with us today and for sharing their testimonies and ministry.

This is a communion service and we invite all who are joining us live to participate. If you are watching this service recorded, please wait for a future service when you can be with us live.

On this Tuesday at 8:00 pm ET, John Hamer will give the lecture that will examine the theory that the Apostle Paul might have been gay. Leandro Palacios will lead Logos Meditation on Wednesday at 8:00 pm ET.
