Kick off Mission Conference 2021 with a positive and uplifting Coffee and Conversation session. We'll ask the question "What are you so excited about right now that you can't help but sing it to the world?" Join us for an hour or so as we share in a sacred space, the things each of us are moved by, pumped up about, excited about, send us over the moon, and yes, we can't keep from singing about them!

Or what about how it feels to walk up to the coffee table and 10 minutes later realize you just made a new friend? And isn't there something magical about sitting down to eat with a random assortment of people? Our Friday evening gathering is a chance to virtually experience these kinds of moments together as a community. Join us while you eat your dinner or dessert and come prepared to listen and to share.
