HEALTH RISK ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND CONSENT

We remain intentional in our commitment to health and safety, and will continue to operate with this in mind.

An inherent risk of exposure to COVID and other respiratory and enteric maladies exists in any public place where people are present. By attending Noronto Reunion you and all persons in your party voluntarily assume all risks related to any such exposure.

We must all take responsibility for keeping everyone healthy at reunion. Such acts as washing hands or using hand sanitizer before meals are ways for each of us to show care for others.

If at any point during Reunion, you or anyone in your party feels ill, please take precautions such as social distancing, wearing a mask, and consulting our camp's health professionals. Public Health Regulations may require those with symptoms of respiratory or enteric maladies, or who test positive for COVID, and possibly members of their party, to isolate/quarantine for their safety and the safety of those attending Reunion. As Camp Noronto does not have the facilities to isolate/quarantine individuals, those needing to isolate/quarantine will need to leave the Reunion grounds.

I/we hereby acknowledge and consent to the above requirements:
